When items are received our staff writes a description, does discovery and takes pictures. The item(s) are then advertised locally, statewide, and on national platforms for buyers preview. Our facility is staffed for personal onsite visits to preview each item and we encourage sellers to get their items to our facility for exposure to the buying public. We have a large mailing list of previous and new buyers, updated daily, to maximize the marketing of all items. Our Auction facility is located on Highway 412 for maximum market exposure to the buying public.

Our marketing philosophy is No Stone Unturned!
